

Your Callers Want to Hear What You Can Do for Them

Turn your telephone into a valuable marketing and customer service tool

OnHoldMessaging.com can help you share valuable information about your business with your callers on hold.

Select from a list of pre-written, Federated-approved messages, write your own content, or use any combination of our messages and yours.

Convert callers into customers, and use hold time to up-sell, cross-sell, and promote your services, specials, and unique value.

Choose your price! $99, $209 or $308

For a one-time price of $99 you get:

- A customized 4-minute On Hold Messaging production

For a one-time price of $209 you get:

- An X-USB On Hold Messaging playback unit that connects to your phone system's music on hold port. Productions are loaded into the system via a flash drive.

Get both the playback unit and your first 4-minute On Hold Messaging production for $308.

* All licensing fees are included.
